

The Dubai Chamber Orchestra

Summer Concert

Thursday, 5th
June, 8pm
Zayed University,
Convention Centre Auditorium

Don't miss this opportunity to hear these talented musicians perform, before you go away on leave this summer!

The concert programme includes Vaughan Williams' beautiful Fantasia on Greensleeves, and continues with Bartók's Six Roumanian Dances, featuring the Syrian violinist Mohammad Hamami as soloist. Completing the programme we have a seldom heard gem by the Finnish composer Jean Sibelius, his Andante Festivo. This will be followed by another seldom heard work, a set of Russian folksongs by Stravinsky with the harpist Shelley Frost and guitarist Valentin Spasov.

We also have a world premiere by locally based composer Barnaby Priest written especially for this concert.

We end the evening with some rousing music by that master of the English baroque period, Henry Purcell: Music from the Fairy Queen.

All in all then, a summer evening of musical delights not to be missed

How to get to Zayed Univeristy.....

Starting at the junction between the E11 and the Oud Metha Road (E66): drive along Oud Metha Road away from Dubai towards Al Ain. Take the first exit after Emirates Road (Exit 16) towards Zayed University, Academic City and Silicon Oasis (this is well signposted with a large brown signpost). As you come back over the Al Ain road you will see Zayed University in front of you: it is the large building with what looks like a ship's funnel. After 400 metres take the exit to Zayed University and Dubai Men's College to your right (this is signposted). Immediately there is a small roundabout. Take the second exit. Follow this road with the university on your right. After 1.5 km turn right at the T junction. Follow the signs to the Main Entrance. Once inside the campus, the car park is the first turning on your right - this is not signposted.

Inside the university

After you park your car walk towards the large entrance way at the centre of the building in front of you. Go under the portico and through the main gate into the central courtyard. Once in the courtyard turn to your right. Walk along the side of the building past the fountain on your left, the university convention centre is in front of you. The auditorium is in this building on the ground floor. The entrance is at the centre of the building.

If you are coming along Emirates Road from Sharjah or Arabian Ranches Roundabout.....

Take Exit 44 (not Exit 50) to get on the Al Ain Road, in the Al Ain & Al Ruwayyah direction. From the Al Ain Road, take the next exit (Exit 16) to Academic City Road. On Academic City Road, take the first right and you will see Zayed University on your right. Immediately there is a small roundabout. Take the second exit.
